Subject: Title Management Today is New and Improved Beginning with the November/December 2003 Edition

Dear Subscribers:

In line with trying to provide the most valuable Title Management publication produced, we are in the process of making some significant changes to the publication's look, availability and management of the subscriptions. In addition to the enhancements that you have already seen to the format of the magazine, here's what else you can expect:

1. The preview period for the magazine will end on November 30 and the online subscription will become a subscribers only section. Usernames and passwords will be disseminated by e-mail. It is important that all subscribers contact us with current e-mail addresses. Please also send the information to cshaffer@createsolutions.com SUBJECT: TMT E-MAIL. We will respond with entry access usernames and passwords on December 1, 2003.
2. In addition to the magazine, all other previously open publications on the publications link of the site will be secured and available to subscribers only. Please update your subscriptions to be sure you do not have any interruption to your service.
3. The magazine is a one-of-a-kind publication and is distributed electronically only. Accordingly, no hard copies will be mailed unless specially requested by subscribers who do not have internet access. The single gateway to the publication is through the titlelawannotated.com website. The unique bonus opportunity that accompanies access to this publication is the ever growing library of related title law specific publications which significantly enhance the value of your subscription. These are presently available on the publications links and in the future will be updated thereon
4. Finally, effective January 2, 2004 billing will be on a calendar year basis only. Those subscribers who renew now will receive the remainder of this year through December 2004 in appreciation for your subscription and your early renewal. Any subscribers who have paid in advance for their subscriptions will receive the appropriate credits and incentives for their prepaid status.
5. For anyone looking for website hosting, design services or other marketing programs in line with the electronic format of Title Management Today, contact Create Solutions, Inc. at 1-800-743-7472 or e-mail: cshaffer@createsolutions.com SUBJECT: TMT SUBSCRIBER and mention you are a subscriber of Title Management Today. You will receive a subscriber discount for any services provided.

We hope you are happy with our efforts to improve the value of your subscription. We continue to welcome your feedback on how we are doing in providing the best service possible. Please contact via letter, telephone or e-mail to provide feedback and ideas of how we can better serve you. Thank you again for your subscription.

Best Regards,
